You have the right to stay at home when you leave a violent relationship

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE affects Kids too

There is NO Excuse For Abuse EXPECT RESPECT

Remain in your home without the perpetrator of violence

If you have suffered from domestic or family violence, you and your children should not have to suffer the trauma of leaving your home, your routine, your support networks and all that is familiar to you.

If the perpetrator of violence has left or been removed from your home then we can provide you with support and assistance to stay in your house.

SHLV can assist you in the following ways

- Support for you and your children to remain safely in your own home or
- Move to safe housing of your choice
- Safety planning
- Risk assessments and security upgrades for your home
- Information on AVO's and assistance at court
- Emotional and practical support
- Referrals to appropriate support services and counselling
- DV groups
- Advocacy
